FOREWORD

To give an accurate picture of the student life and activities at Susquehanna is the traditional purpose of the Lanthorn. That this particular issue should present an accurate and interesting picture of this life is our aim.

An attempt has been made to make this Lanthorn different: a somewhat radical departure has been effected in regard to the theme. There is no story theme present in the 1937 Lanthorn, merely a photographic theme depicting the various activities and interests of the students.

It is our sincere wish that this publication of the class of '37 will please you as well as uphold the traditions of Susquehanna University.

CLASS HISTORY.

Four short years ago, we, the Senior Class made our debut upon the now familiar campus of Susquehanna University. Upon the arrival of the upper-classmen, we soon learned our place, that of being lowly "Frosh." However, this condition did not prevail long as we soon made a very successful "get-away," whereupon we elected our class officers.

Our first major task was participation in the annual Soph-Frosh football game which we lost by the close score of 13 to 6. The disappointment of this defeat was somewhat lessened by the knowledge that several members of our class aided in the completion of Susquehanna's undefeated football season of 1932.

As the year passed, many members of our class came to the front to display their abilities in practically every activity on the campus. After the brief respite of the summer session, we returned to the campus determined to defeat the new Freshman football team as badly as we had been defeated in the previous year. Again, however, we suffered defeat to the tune of 13 to 0.

During our Junior year we were faced with two important projects, the publication of the Lanthorn, and the responsibility of the Junior Prom. Both were equally successful and it is with great pride that we point to our accomplishments.

President HORACE HUTCHISON
Vice-President BERNICE HARDING
Secretary RUTH WILLIAMSON
Treasurer MARCELLA CHAYA

It is now our Senior year and as we glance back through the preceding years, we realize only too well that our goal has nearly been reached. What the future contains for us not many know. But we do know that we, the class of 1936, shall never forget our four years spent on the campus of Susquehanna University. So it is with the fondest farewell and deepest regret that we say adieu to these familiar surroundings.

Ernst Mahr Anna Miller

Dear [illegible]!
[illegible] I always admired your ability in handling the trumpet. I wish you the best luck you possibly can have. Fraternally yours, Ernst Mahr

Introducing to you Ernst Mahr. Ernst is our exchange student from Germany. He graduated from Oberrealschule Maiur in 1934 as a student of English, French, and history at the University of Giessen for the 1934-35 term. Upon returning to his homeland, next year, he will resume his study at Giessen to complete his preparation for the teaching profession. We are proud to have Ernst as a member of our student body.

Anna came to us from the Conservatory of Music at Anderson, South Carolina, where she studied voice and piano. Her home is in West Virginia. Anna has a subtle form of humor which adds to her pleasing personality. Anna's numerous friends verify this.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

CLASS HISTORY. Having started with an enrollment past the half-hundred mark at the beginning of our college career, unforseen circumstances occurred which depleted our number, until now. we boast of the fact that at the present we comprise the smallest class at Susquehanna. However, we have adopted this adage as our slogan: "Though we be few in number, we will be mighty in power."

Each year as we returned to school we have eagerly looked forward to the months to be spent on the campus. All too quickly they pass, leaving us but pleasant memories. During the first three years of our college life, we the class of 1937 have tried to bring a new spirit into our everyday living, and we hope to carry this spirit into our final year.

Undaunted, we look forward to the '36-'37 year until we must sing our "Swan Song."

> Thou hast my better years;
> Thou hast my earlier friends, the good, the kind,
> Yielded to thee with tears;
> The venerable form, the exalted mind.
> "The Past"

As we look back over the three years which we have spent in college, many things are recalled, never to be forgotten. Our first days togther—new ideals, new resolutions, new friendships—what trying times they were; and yet who can forget the eventful trolley ride or the victorious team in the annual Freshman-Sophomore football game?

President WALTER S. V. POYCK
Vice-President MARGARET CORSON
Treasurer ROBERT MOSHER
Secretary ARLINE MARSHALL

The class of 1937 is justly proud of its achievements scholastically, on the athletic field, and socially.

Many of the outstanding students on Susquehanna's campus are members of the class of 1937.

KENNETH ALEXANDER

KENNETH BADGER

Bond and Key

Varsity Football 1, 2, 3; Varsity Basketball 1, 2; Varsity Baseball 2, 3; Track 2, 3; Soccer; Hockey; Colony Organization.

"Alex" is one of those colony men whose versatility in the realm of sports is much in evidence. Besides these activities, "Ken" is also known to be quite a clown, producing many a laugh with his spontaneous wit. Of late he has been a rather regular visitor at Seibert Hall, thereby adding the final touch to a well-rounded campus personality.

"Ken" is a colony man and therefore little is seen of him except in classes. He does manage, however, to follow his inclinations along the lines of sport, playing varsity baseball, basketball, and football. Every so often, Badger appears at a dance with a certain young lady, thereby keeping himself in the social whirl. With business as his aim, "Ken" is a hard worker and should go far.

"Barney" is one of our honor roll students and we are proud of her scholastic record. Her time is taken up with studies and Jimmy, both receiving her undivided attention. She has been active in sports and music, and possesses a lovely soprano voice. As an A.B. student she will probably enter the teaching profession.

Oren is one of Susquehanna's best students, and at the same time a fine athlete, as evidenced by his election as captain of the track team. He has been outstanding on the track since he first arrived at Susquehanna and has always been a hard worker.

Vivian comes to us as a transfer from "'way down South." At present she is residing with her sister in Sunbury. She is majoring in Chemistry and hopes some day to teach. As to temperament, she isn't too quiet. She is rather lively and witty, and everyone seems to enjoy her company.

"Peg" is just "Peg" and she's everybody's friend. She first wished to become a doctor, but has now decided to take a laboratory technician's course. When it comes to activities, "Peg" can qualify for all of them, but sports are her major interest.

We lost "Kitty" in the matrimonial sea at the end of the first semester this year. She was one of the shining lights at the Conservatory, excelling as a pianist. She was one of those small but mighty persons, and possessed a pleasing personality. Best of luck in your married life, "Kitty."

"Bunky" is another product of Yonkers of which Susquehanna is justly proud. He is an all round athlete and was recently elected to head the basketball squad for next year. He is one of the best students in the Business department, being especially proficient in Accounting. His ambition is to be a C.P.A.

DON GAVER

Bond and Key

Band 3; Inter-Frat. Basketball; Class Soccer; Basketball; Baseball.

"Mollie" is that blue-eyed, laughing Conservatory student who hails from Shamokin. Her major is organ, and scholastically, "Mollie" rates with the best of them. She is very active in all sports and aspires to teach tiny tots to do-re-mi in some school.

Here is Don pictured on the same page with his "Mollie." Don came to Susquehanna this year, having transferred from Juniata. We welcome this popular addition to our student body. Don is well liked by everyone, and seems not to regret his choice of Susquehanna. He enjoys the reputation of being one of the best scholars on the campus.

"Rudy" is our Rhythm Man from down town. It was "Rudy" who led the Crusaders to Europe. Incidentally, another ocean voyage has been planned for this summer.

"Rudy" and his band have been responsible for the success of many of the school's social functions through the medium of their music. We hope one day to see "Rudy" numbered among the premier dance music arrangers of the country.

Helen commutes daily from Beaver Springs. She is majoring and minoring in the classical languages and will enter the teaching profession.

Helen is rather quiet and unassuming, but she does have an appreciative sense of humor.

This Homer City lass is everybody's helper and she can be seen dashing around the campus on one mission or another almost any day in the week. Her favorite hobby is knitting, and it takes up a good part of her spare time. "Bobby" is majoring in math at which she is particularly adept.

Coming to Susquehanna from Williamsport Dickinson Junior College, Carl was a stranger to us on the first day of school, but his fine qualities as a mixer were soon discovered.

He travels a distance of eight miles to come to school, and each evening he returns to his lonely parsonage to attend his Methodist "lambs." His determination will carry him far.

Dotty is famous for her weekly jaunts home. We can't figure out what the attraction is,—but we do know that Dotty is a music student and a fiddler gay. She is full of fun and a great friend to everyone.

Red hair and bad tempers? Never! At least not where Jean comes from. She is always happy and manages to keep all her associates in laughter wherever they may be. A friend to all and incidentally one of the best dancers at Susquehanna.

Lewis is not seen very often on the campus except for classes, as he lives downtown this year. Much of his time is spent in the Conservatory of Musie, where he is to be found busily filling its halls and practice rooms with his booming bass voice. How his spare time is spent, no one seems to know. It is known, however, that Howells is a good singer.

A commuter yes, but one who has made many friends on our campus. Wherever you go, whatever you do, Jannie and Al are right with you. Jannie will be the tops as a wife or a school teacher.

Actually from Mt. Carmel, really belonging to Middleburg—yes, and since her freshman year. Her ambition was to receive a doctor's degree in mathematics, but—well, things change. One of the most popular girls on the campus and the best friend anyone could wish for.

"Les" is one of our Pre-Theologs. Although a good student, he nevertheless finds time for his hobby of photography. Now and then you will find him leaving his studies to tinker with the motor of a car. Yes, it usually runs after he is finished. Ask him sometime about good old Bucknell.

Here we present one of our faithful Day students from the Metropolitan center of Herndon. "Woody" is one of our pre-theologs, and although he is a pronounced Democrat, we feel that he will make a success in his life's work.

His main interest is in the field of social studies as evidenced by his membership in Pi Gamma Mu.

One of the intellectuals of the class. This Sunbury lass is always on the honor roll. Besides being an exceptional student she swings a mean hockey club. Success will surely be hers.

Whenever there is a "bull session" we may expect to see "The Judge" expounding his views upon everything under the sun. His arguments are very convincing—at times—and the dignified title by which he is known has been the result.

"Chet" comes to us from the wilderness of Friedens, and has made for himself a warm spot in the hearts of all of us.

"Peepie"—another of Jersey Shore's contributions to us, is small in stature only. She has made known her presence on the campus by participating in all kinds of activities, but she can always manage to find spare time for her Joe. The origin of her nickname is very interesting, according to her friends.

This young fellow is guilty of many peculiar idiosyncrasies which the average person might not understand. Bob is extremely frank with everyone and a true friend to those who know him. He has a very keen mind but does not believe in wasting time on studies that do not appeal to him. We admire you, Bob, for your broad mindedness and your delightful disregard of conventionalities.

"Pete's" first ambition is to get into aviation from the business end. He already possesses a student pilot's license. His second ambition is to travel extensively, and he plans to visit Europe again this year as he did last summer with Rudy and his gang. During the past two years Pete seems to have forsaken Seibert Hall. His excuse has been that he has always been too busy.

Mary, one of the recent additions to our campus, came to us from Wilson. She is a very vivacious person, and her favorite pastime is dancing.

We've heard that one of Mary's weaknesses is the habit of sleeping whenever possible, but she always seems to be wide awake when she is with Jim or on the athletic field.

Beth, the bright eyed Hagerstown miss, needs no introduction for she is the type that makes friends wherever she goes.

Beth always has plenty of pep, on the athletic field or when with her friends. Her interest has rather changed lately and we wonder if she is still planning to go on with her medical career.

Roberts is a newcomer to our campus, being a transfer student from Lehigh. Although not a ladies' man, John is well liked by his Hassinger Hall cohorts and his professors. His future plans lie along scientific lines and he hopes someday to become a big steel magnate. Hence, much of his time is spent in Steele Science Lab.

Clarence, with his quiet, retiring personality, has won for himself a permanent place in the hearts of his fellow students. He has never been known to attend classes unprepared. He is another of our pre-theologs, and seems destined to succeed in his chosen work.

"Scotty" is a lively person who appears to be "bubbling over" most of the time. Because of her sunny disposition and her musical ability, she is much in demand especially in Seibert Parlors after dinner when the urge to dance arises.

We present in Henry the intellectual of the Junior Class. Although he lives the busy life of a day student, he still finds time to lend his statesmanlike wit to Dr. Russ and the debating team. Ray has become an institution at Susquehanna, and there is hardly a person who does not know him in his varied roles of head waiter, scholar, leader in religious life, and general utility man at Seibert Hall. Hailing from Montoursville, Shaheen is one of our most sincere and able candidates for the ministry and will surely prove capable.

CLASS HISTORY. It was on September 16, 1935, that a group of high school graduates met together for the first time in Seibert Chapel. That meeting changed us from a group of strangers into the Class of 1938 of Susquehanna University. Before long we began to assert ourselves for, under the very noses of the Sophomores, we organized our class and elected officers. Those chosen to guide our class through that hectic year were:

President KARL KNISELEY
Vice President PRESTON SMITH
Secretary GLADYS TELLEEN
Treasurer MARTHA BOLIG

Especially did our class show its athletic prowess during its Freshman year. Not many weeks had passed until our boys were crowned Soccer champions. The Sophomores especially resented this, and with malice in their hearts, prepared to give our boys a good trouncing in the annual Freshman-Sophomore football tilt. We shall never forget that game for the boys defeated the Sophomore players to the tune of 6-0.

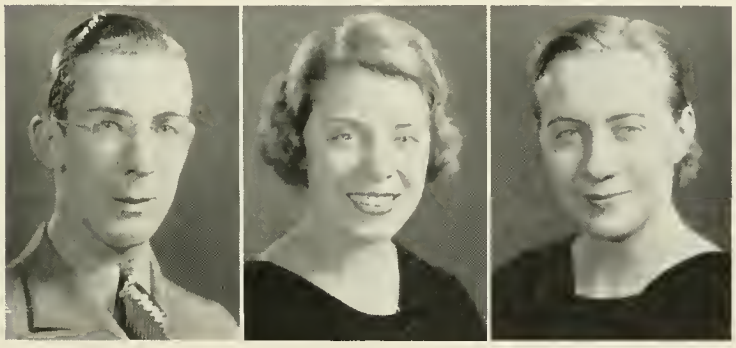

One week of our Freshman year we shall never forget. That was the week before Homecoming Day. After many exciting escapades we were able to have the best bonfire the campus has ever witnessed.

Then there was the time we tried to rebel against customs. For once we were put in our place, but our action undoubtedly made things easier for the next Freshman class.

This year we returned to the campus more mature and better prepared to carry on our life as college students.

School authorities saw fit to discontinue the annual Freshman-Sophomor game. We feel that this was giving the Freshmen a real break for there is little question in our minds as to the outcome if the game had been played. We regret that the Freshmen missed the thrills which accompany a Homecoming bonfire.

Soon we will have reached the half-way mark of our college careers. Each day we try to better prepare ourselves for the responsibilities which lie ahead of us. May our fortune and happiness continue as it has in the past.

CLASS HISTORY. On the sixteenth day of September, 1935, seventy-one "Greenies" made their personal appearance on the campus. Orientation followed in the form of parties, dances, pep-meetings, and the usual get-togethers. School loyalty was demonstrated by the pep-meetings and get-togethers, and at the same time we were instilled with a spirit of unity.—Next in importance was our get-away. We successfully evaded the Sophomores and escaped to Rolling Green Park. However, only a small number were present and we were later obliged to re-elect our officers.—Then followed the period of such restrictions and obligations as dinks, arm bands, name tags, black ties and socks, and the like.—In our athletic ventures we were very successful. The girls won the hockey championship while the boys were leading in the interclass basketball games.—The loss of one of our classmates, George Hollar, was felt as keenly by the upper-classmen and faculty as by his classmates. George's cheerful outlook on life was an inspiration to all those who came in contact with him.—This past college year, although it has been something new for all of us, has instilled in us a deep respect and love for this—our second home.

When we leave these portals in the spring, it will be with the hope that we will all meet again in the fall to continue our old friendship and to welcome new students.

SUMMARY

The football season of 1935 at Susquehanna brought to us as coach, Amos Alonzo Stagg, son of the famous "grand old man" of football. In the earlier practices, Coach Stagg received many disappointments. Handicapped greatly by a small squad, he was forced to develop "iron" men who could play almost an entire game at top speed. At the outset, three lettermen from last year's squad did not return to school. Then doctor's orders and eligibility rules robbed the squad of three more lettermen.

However, Stagg and his men rose above all the jinxes which haunted them, and in the first home game of the season, before one of the largest crowds ever to witness a football game at Susquehanna, the Crusaders performed brilliantly to down a strong Haverford eleven. The victory was costly, however, since the squad lost the services of another varsity man.

Undaunted, the Crusaders next journeyed to Philadelphia, where by brilliant defensive playing they managed to hold a strong St. Joseph's eleven to a 7-0 score.

In their next encounter—the battle of the brothers—Susquehanna, although considerably outweighed, played one of their best games of the season and the Moravian fracas ended in a 0-0 stalemate. The game was a hard one to lose, since the Crusaders had a considerable advantage in yardage and first downs.

At the next home game—the Homecoming game with Washington—the Crusaders played real ball. Glittering runs, superb charging, and blocking by the line, stamped the game as the most outstanding to date.

Those who saw the Drexel game will long remember the class demonstration of football put on by the valiant Crusaders, but the injury jinx, tremendous odds both in weight and playing on a strange field, plus poor officiating, were too much, and the Dragons came out on top to a 13-7 victory.

In preparation for the annual tilt with Pennsylvania Military College, gloom settled heavily. Looked upon as by far the most important game of the season, a series of injuries resulting from the Drexel game, took its toll.

Three varsity men were put out of commission and Stagg was forced to considerable juggling in order to strengthen the team as much as possible. Despite the tremendous odds against them, the plucky Crusaders held the Cadets to a 13-7 score.

The final encounter of the season with Swarthmore proved to be an easy one, for the local lads went on a scoring spree, and when the smoke had cleared away, Susquehanna had closed its season with a smashing 34-0 victory over a weaker Swarthmore team.

General statistics for the past season show Captain Wasilewski to be the high scorer as well as the man who gained the most number of yards. In second place for ground gaining comes Ritter, hard-plunging fullback who finished his second season for the Crusaders. The Washington game proved to be the most outstanding for ground gaining, while the Swarthmore game was outstanding for its passing attack.

Much credit is due to the wonderful defensive playing of the entire team. To be able to repeatedly hold a stronger team when in your own territory is the aim of every coach and the Crusaders in the past season were remarkably successful in this respect. Coach Stagg, in commenting on the defensive work of the team, describes this year's edition as one of the best defensive teams he has ever seen in action.

Next year Coach Stagg plans a slight change in the type of football to be played. During the 1936 season a scientific "take-a-chance" brand of football will be inaugurated. More passes will be thrown and Stagg is already training backs and ends in the fundamentals of passing and receiving. Throughout the past season it has been Coach Stagg's policy to give each and every player his chance, and to avoid the development of individual stars.

Truly our football destinies have taken an upward trend, and the next year's team should be better by far than any other team in the past few years of the history of the institution. Little regret is felt concerning the past season as a whole. We have eyes only for the future. Let Susquehanna's opponents for the 1936 season beware!

Susquehanna has a romantic background in football. In years past she has rated with some of the leading colleges of the country on the gridiron. One of the most outstanding comments ever made about her men was made by none other than "Pop" Warner, who in the dressing room prior to one of the games between the Carlisle Indians and the Crusaders, remarked, "This is the smallest college on our entire schedule, but it is the game I fear the most, since I can never be sure just what these boys are going to pull."

BASKETBALL

Susquehanna's basketeers played a total of twenty games during the 1935-36 season. In view of the fact that because of the destruction of the original Alumni gymnasium, the Crusaders had been forced to suspend activity for two consecutive seasons, we are proud of the record of eleven victories and nine defeats.

In the department of individual point-making, the Crusader's flashy pair of senior forwards—Naegeli and Wasilewski—waged a merry race for the season's scoring honors, while Wetzel, the gigantic Frosh pivot man also passed the century mark in point scoring. Naegeli was high scorer for the entire season with a total of 175 points. Wasilewski was second with 153 and Wetzel took third place with 129 points.

At the hands of Bucknell, the Crusaders suffered a double defeat, but compensated for this by vanquishing the Delaware University quintet in both games. The Crusaders scored a total of 764 points during the season as against 698 points scored by opponents.

Next year should bring a fairly successful season to Susquehanna's quintet with the squad being built around captain-elect Fredericks, and the now somewhat experienced Freshmen.

Sitting—Coach Stagg, Fredericks, Wetzel, Naegeli, Roach, Hess, Wasilewski, Berkeley.
Standing—Hostetter, Keim, Diffenderfer, Keil, Sivick, Schweitzer, Herr, McBride, Gould, Wert, Gaver, Mastovich, Brosious, Rakshys, Mgr. Weinberger.

The now famous flood of 1936 also affected this edition of the Lanthorn.

Unfortunately, the only group pictures of the 1935 Track and Baseball squads which existed, were destroyed by the flood waters which inundated Sunbury. Consequently it was not possible to place in the 1937 Lanthorn, photographs of these two athletic groups.

We may well be grateful that our loss was limited to these two group photographs.

TRACK

This season, under the direction of Coach Stagg, and the leadership of Capt. Oren Benner, Susquehanna's track men will engage in five track meets in addition to the Interclass meets to be held here at Selinsgrove.

Last season, our representatives placed fourth in the Penn Relays held at Franklin Field. The men representing Susquehanna were Toomey, Benner, Leitzel, and Hess.

Despite the magnificent performance of skill and stamina displayed by Harold Osborne, former Olympic champion, and now a student at Osteopathy College, Susquehanna succeeded in defeating that school by a score of 70 to 56. Osborne himself garnered 23 of Osteopathy's points. For Susquehanna, Benner placed first in the 100 and 440 and second in the 220 dash and 220 hurdles. Adamavage placed first in the 220 and second in the 100 and the broad jump. Hess, Alex, and Ritchie were winners also.

Washington College of Chestertown, Md., decisively defeated Susquehanna by the score of 80 to 46. This defeat was due almost entirely to the brilliant performance of Young, the Washington College miracle man, who garnered six first places.

Susquehanna sent two men to the Central Pennsylvania Collegiate Track Conference held at Franklin and Marshall College. Jones and Benner entered three events. Jones tied for first place in the pole vault, while Benner placed first in the 220 dash and second in the 440 dash.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC

During the past year enthusiasm ran high in women's interclass sports. The Sophomores emerged triumphant in both the soccer and basketball championship series. All of the games were close and very exciting. The Juniors emerged undefeated in the volleyball tournament thus clinching the title.

One of the highlights of the season was the exciting hockey game between the women and a picked team of men who braved the flying hockey sticks of the more experienced women to hand them a severe trouncing despite their inexperience.

The Women's Athletic Association changed its constitution and made the requirements for letters and numerals more exacting. This organization promises to be one of the most active on the campus in future years.

The Intra-Mural Board under the direction of Coach Stagg has been directly responsible for the increased activity and interest in intra-mural sports which Susquehanna has witnessed during the past school year.

One of the youngest organizations at Susquehanna, this group is comprised of those of our athletes who live at the State Colony and travel each day to our campus. Not an easy job, but these boys seem to enjoy it.

The Council is composed of two members from each of the fraternities and two members from the non-fraternity group. The Council has aided greatly in effecting a close union between the students.

The interest and cooperation shown by Miss Naomi K. Hade, Dean of Women, have done much to make Susquehanna's system of student government successful. Various members of the Council are chairmen of a number of committees which cover every phase of campus life.

The work of the choir is done entirely a capella.

CHORAL SOCIETY

E. Edwin Sheldon, Conductor

The Choral Society of Susquehanna University affords students and faculty an opportunity to study some standard oratorio each year and to present it in concert with soloists from New York and Philadelphia.

Such works as Mendelssohn's "Elijah," Saint Saens' "Samson and Delilah," Busch's "The Four Winds," and "The Swan and Skylark" of Thomas have been given in recent years.

This season the society has prepared and presented Handel's "Judas Maccabaeus" with the following soloists:

Florence L. Manning, soprano, Philadelphia
Lillie Holmstrand Fraser, contralto, Philadelphia
Edward Duley, tenor robusto, New York
Leonard W. Treash, bass-baritone, Philadelphia

PROGRESS

There are few fields where the necessity for progress—the demand for new ideas, is as pronounced as in the production of School Annuals. ✡ Here in Canton we take pride in not only keeping pace, but in setting the pace for innovations and changes in this highly progressive field. ✡ When you work with Canton you are hand in hand with experienced people, constantly on the alert to sense the wants of Annual publishers, and quick to change from the old order, and offer new and unusual ideas to progressive editors.
